FOREWARD

IN OUR MOMENTS OF MEDITATION UPON WHAT THE FUTURE MAY HOLD FOR US, WE WONDER HOW MUCH USE OUR FOUR YEARS OF HIGH SCHOOL WILL BE. WE HAVE STRIVEN GALLANTLY THROUGH WORK AND PLAY. BUT HAVE THESE GIVEN US A TRUE UNDERSTANDING OF EDUCATION? HAVE WE LEARNED TO PROFIT BY OUR MISTAKES? ONLY THE FUTURE WILL PROVIDE AN ANSWER TO THESE QUESTIONS. OUR LIVES WILL REFLECT OUR HIGH SCHOOL TRAINING.

JUNIORS, SOPHOMORES, AND FRESHMAN, YOU WILL TRY TO SURPASS THE CLASS OF NINETEEN FORTY-ONE. BENEFIT BY OUR MISTAKES, TAKE PRIDE IN YOUR SCHOOL AND ABLE FACULTY; BUT REMEMBER THIS: "WHEN THE ONE GREAT SCORER COMES TO WRITE AGAINST YOUR NAME, HE MARKS---NOT THAT YOU WON OR LOST---BUT HOW YOU HAVE PLAYED THE GAME."

EIGHTY NINE YEARS OF BEAVER FALLS SCHOOL

The pendulum swings back over the steps of time and reawakens the steadily growing past as a camera projector makes live again the events of yesterday. How proudly Mr. Hiram VanArnam speaks of his mother, Miss Celestia Lewis, as being the first school teacher in the log building across the road from the old Frye house. Only five years later in 1857, a frame schoolhouse was built where the Fire House is now located. But this old red school soon became antiquated; and a new school, better known as the school with the partition, was erected on the site between the Martin Just home and the present red brick structure. Mr. Howard Darring vividly recalls a common form of punishment used in this school, that of making the boys sit with the girls when they misbehaved and vice versa. Also very interesting is Mr. VanArnam's register of 1881, 1882 and part of 1883 when he taught the advanced grades in this school. The remaining term of 1883 was taught by Miss Libbie Radigan who was succeeded by Miss Angeline Duncan.

In 1885 a new school was built on the same site as the school with the partition. Mr. James P. Lewis served as the first trustee of this school. Many of the villagers both young and old will recall that this building remained in service until 1927. During now have. The extra curricular activities were few, the main interest being a limited participation in athletics. Under very capable leaders, school standards were set and maintained; the foundation was laid on which the present functions are built and progress was well started on its way.

To many of the time honored residents of Beaver Falls, these names of principals will be most familiar. The Messrs. Evan J. Smith, Glenn Pooler, James Fitzgerald and William Semper, each serving two years with the exception of Mr. Pooler who served one year, are among the very early principals. Mrs.

The copy of the manuscript, written by Henry Jones, Esq. of the County of York, is in the possession of the Hon. the Secretary of State, and is now in the hands of the Hon. the Secretary of State, and is now in the hands of the Hon. the Secretary of State.

White remembers Mr. Semper as having charge of the school in 1890. Mr. Malowning probably succeeded Mr. Semper as head of the school. An old register shows that Mr. Gilligan carried out the duties of the principalship from 1893 to 1895. Mr. Roy N. Porter served the school from 1897-1898 and possibly from 1895-1897. In 1898 Mr. Porter was succeeded by Mr. Edward G. Carr who served as principal the next two years. The successor of Mr. Carr's was Mr. Charles J. Campbell who was principal for the year 1900-1901.

In 1902 Mr. Allan N. Roberts was engaged as principal, a position which he held until 1911 with the exception of the two years from March 1904 to 1906 when his brother, Louis, was then acting principal. It was during Mr. Allan Robert's principalship that the two year high school was started, the school receiving this rating in 1910. At this time English, Latin, German, Ancient and American History, Civics, Algebra, Geometry, Biology and Chemistry made up the curriculum. Mr. Wesley O'Brien remembers that Miss Fell started the Latin department and that Miss Marilley taught German which was dropped from the curriculum during the World War. Mr. Roberts was responsible for the school's obtaining a flag, the money for which was raised by popular subscriptions. The present school colors, the orange and the green, were adopted about 1909 or 1910 which would be during Mr. Roberts' period of service.

Mr. Roy C. Ireland succeeded Mr. Roberts as principal in 1911 and remained until 1914. The first graduate of Beaver Falls High School was Seymour White who received his diploma in 1914. Seymour received the two years instruction in school and gained the extra required credits for graduation from the outside coaching of Mr. Ireland. At the Commencement Exercises held in the M.E. Church, Seymour gave a Commencement speech entitled, "The Panama Canal", which was completed in the year 1914. Until this time very little, if any, interest had been taken in Athletics, but during Mr. Ireland's principalship a baseball team was formed. In 1912 the school boasted a very good "Nine" which was composed of Wesley O'Brien, Lawrence Wardell, Seymour White, Wesley Heimhilger, Wesley Bach, Louis Stoffel, Walter O'Brien, Madore LaMourey and Arthur Osborne.

Mr. Harry W. Davis succeeded Mr. Ireland as principal in 1914 and served in that capacity until 1916. The next principal was Mr. Smith Goff who was here only one year. From 1917 to 1919 Miss Charlotte Mawson served as principal. She was succeeded by Mr. C. T. Mackey who was here for only one year. The 1920 and 1921 terms were under the principalship of Mr. Francis I. Meehan.

In 1921, Mr. Orson Babbit became principal in which capacity he served the school until 1929. During his principalship the three and four year high school departments were both started. When the school received its four year high school rating in 1925, the subjects in the curriculum included English, French, Latin, Ancient and American History, Civics, Design and Representation, Elementary and Intermediate Algebra, Biology and Physics. The French Department under the direction of Miss Dorothy Babbit (Mrs. Harold Nortz) was added to the curriculum in about 1924. In 1925 the first class with the exception of Seymour White was graduated from Beaver Falls High School. This class was composed of seven girls and two boys: Rebecca Bramhall, (Mrs. Fred Widmeyer); Mary Lewis, (Mrs. William Groat; Louise Nuffer, (Mrs. Roy Ruhnka); Laurene Cassidy, (Mrs. Stanley Kotary); Evelyn Honor, (Mrs. Glenn Sheldon); Frances Lyndaker, (Mrs. Phillips); Dorothy Parker, (Mrs. Mitchell); Lawson Ranage, Jr.; and Elmer Streeter. In about 1924 or 1925 Mrs. Grace Lewis Cornwall wrote the present school song. The first Senior Play was directed by Mrs. Daisy Babbit in about 1928.

During the latter part of Mr. Babbit's long service as principal, the "old school" became only a memory, for in November 1927 the present red brick building was erected. This school, which was designed along the lines of the eighteenth century American architecture, was dedicated on January 13, 1928. At the dedication Mr. Hiram called the names in honor which possesses. graduating the new in 1928. and three received their at this new school ed many not only in of its in June both its extra cur- But these would not lived the teen years foundation old schools of the years past had not been firm and solid.

Mr. Babbit was succeeded by Mr. Clifford Berry who served from 1929 to 1936. The depression of 1929 changed the trend of education toward that of earning a living. Thus the Domestic Science and Industrial Arts and later the Agricultural Departments were added to the school curriculum. In 1931 the Industrial Arts Departments was started under the direction of Mr. Edward Whittington. Miss Miriam Jenkins, (Mrs. Oscar Hassler) was the first instructor in the Domestic Science Department which was started in 1932. The Commerce Department was added to the curriculum in 1935, with Miss Inez Roberts (Mrs. C. Phelps Carter) being the first teacher. Another change in the curriculum of the school was made in 1929 when the Music Department was started under the direction of Miss Blanche Rutherford. At this time a school chorus and orchestra were started by Miss Rutherford. A little later the Beaver Falls School participated in the county music work under which plan only a certain number of periods a week were given over to music. Other changes in the school curriculum which still survive but on a larger scale were the school paper (The Beaver's Tale) started by Miss Miriam Jenkins in the spring of 1935 and girls' and boys' basketball in 1931 under the coaching of Mr. Edward Whittington. Also in 1931 the U-Kum-C-Fest was first presented under the direction of Miss Marion Janieson (Mrs. Lawson Ranage.) Simultaneously with the changes made in the regular and extra curriculum, a greater number of students enrolled each year in the school. Many of these pupils came from the outlying districts from which transportation to the Beaver Falls School had to be furnished. In 1931, the school board purchased a 30 passenger bus and also the small bus which had carried pupils from the Belfort school. A 37 passenger bus and also a 49 passenger bus were purchased in August 1935 and in the summer of 1936 a garage to house these buses was erected on the ground behind the school.

In 1936 Mr. Francis Campbell assumed the duties of the principalship, a position in which he still serves. Three new departments have been added to the school during his principalship, these being -Agriculture in 1936 under the direction of Mr. Edward Fauler; Physical Education in 1937 under Mr. Wharton Hirst and Guidance in 1940 under Mr. Irving Wiggs. In 1936 Mr. Fauler assumed both the duties of the Agricultural and Industrial Arts Departments which remained under one instructor until 1939 when Mr. Alfred Meger became instructor of Industrial Arts. In 1938 the first full time Music Department was established under the direction of Miss Eleanor Burnett. Many extra curricular changes have been introduced which attempt to provide the students with a well rounded background of not only subject matter but also of leadership experience involving sportsmanship, dramatics, business and advertising duties. In 1937 a program of clubs to give the students an opportunity to express themselves in various interests was introduced under the direction of members of the faculty. Some of those clubs were stamp, photography, etiquette hobby, Home Economics, bridge, sports agricultural and dancing. Also, in 1937 the honor pin system was introduced through the interests of Mrs. Mary Pitcher Lewis. These honor pins are awarded annually to students maintaining an average of 85 or more in both their class average and examination. In 1938 the school Annual (The Beaverian) was started with Mr. Campbell as its first advisor. In this same year the first Junior Class Play was presented under the direction of Miss Ruth Haley. The band was formed in 1938 under the leadership of Miss Eleanor Burnett. A Student Council was set up in 1939 under the advisorship of Mr. Campbell. The first Spring Music Concert was held in the spring of 1939 with Miss Burnett as its sponsor. One year later in 1940 Miss Burnett initiated the custom of May Queen who is elected by the student body. The Beaver's Tale which was started in 1933 has increased in size and influence under the management of Miss Inez Roberts, Miss Virginia Travis and Mrs. Helen Carnie. In June 1941 the first Senior Ball is scheduled to be held under the direction of Miss Haley and Mr. Campbell. The athletics of the school have multiplied rapidly under the leadership of Mr. Eric Hodges, who introduced track, tumbling and intramural sports in 1936, and Mr. Wharton Hirst who added archery and soccer in 1940 and has enlarged the sports schedule of the school.

These changes are very evident of the growing spirit of our school which now can compete with many schools in this vicinity. A great deal of spirit has been maintained and encouraged by the efforts and interests of the Board of Education. The present members of the Board of Education are Mr. Wesley F. O'Brien, president, who has served since 1936; Mrs. Mary Pitcher Lewis (1925-); Mrs. Charlotte LeFevre (1935-); Mrs. Daisy Babbit (1936-) and Mr. DeWitt LeFevre (1940-); Mr. Martin Just has acted as school treasurer since 1925; Mr. Leon Ellis has served the school as janitor since 1927. Mr. Glenn A. Sealy has been the superintendent of this school district for a great many years.

All of the above material on the growth of the school was obtained by Miss Ruth Haley from the following residents of the town, namely: Mrs. Howard Darring, Mrs. Thomas White, Mrs. Grace Lewis Cornwall, Mrs. Leon Ellis, Mrs. Orson Babbit, Mrs. Floyd VanArman, Mrs. Walter O'Brien, Mr. Hiran VanArman, Mr. Ralph VanArman, Mr. Llewellyn Nuffer, Mr. Wesley O'Brien and Mr. Francis H. Campbell, and also from the old registers and minutes of school meetings.

From the many long years ago in 1852 time has been recorded in the hearts and minds of many; more may have been forgotten than remembered. But the spirit of the sturdy pioneers and of their posterity is still maintained in the swinging of the pendulum forward and upward by the able members of the Beaver Falls Faculty.

In 1945, the National Geographic Society, which had been active in the field of geographical research since its founding in 1888, decided to publish a series of maps of the world. The first map in the series, the "World Map of 1945", was published in 1945. It was a world map showing the world as it was in 1945, with all the countries and territories that were then recognized by the United Nations. The map was published in a series of four parts, each showing a different part of the world. The first part, "The World Map of 1945", was published in 1945. REPORT

1. The first part of the report is devoted to a general description of the work done during the year. It includes a list of the projects undertaken, a description of the methods used, and a summary of the results obtained.

RESULTS

1. The first result of the work is the discovery of a new method of determining the rate of reaction between two substances.

CONCLUSIONS

1. The results of the work show that the new method is a reliable and accurate one. It is applicable to a wide range of reactions and can be used to determine the rate of reaction between two substances with a high degree of precision.

OUR Junior Play, "PIGTAILS", was a great success due to the efforts of our director, Miss Haley. After much hard work and fun, the play was received by a large audience on April 24, 1940 at the Community Hall. This was our first opportunity to take part in a three act play. We wish to extend our thanks to Mr. Alfred Meger and members of the Community House Committee who provided full stage scenery for school and community use. Having realized a large profit from this play, we looked forward to presenting another play in our senior year.

OUR Senior Play, "BRINGIN' HOME THE BACON", which was presented on November 19, 1941, enjoyed the same success as our Junior play by calling forth a large and responsive house. Its unusual plot and refreshing characters distinguished it greatly. "Porky", the Pig, succeeded in making his "bit" role the hit of the show by squeeling whole-heartedly for the benefit of an appreciative audience. Again Miss Haley's efficient direction was largely responsible for the play's success.

The past four years, dear to the memory of our hearts, have sped along on the "Wings of Time".

In the fall of 1937, the present Senior Class set sail the unknown ship, "High School", for knowledge, fun and adventure, with a crew of thirty-one. Since there was no room large enough to hold the entire class, the girls were enrolled in Mrs. Stevens's homeroom and the boys in Mr. Fauler's homeroom. At the first class meeting we elected the following officers: President, Glenn Fredenburg; Vice President, Ermogine Spagnolli; Secretary, Alex Ritz; Treasurer, Beatrice Yousey; and Advisor, Mr. Hirst. Our class, being full of vim and vigor, was very anxious to participate in the school activities; and the crowning success of our first year was the winning of the Junior High School Field Day. The social activities of the class included a Hallowe'en Party, a sleigh ride and a trip to the movies, "Test Pilot". Our Freshman year was fun but responsibilities began to overtake us in the form of our examinations. We then confessed that we were ready for the two months' rest from school duties when we could just pull in the oars and drift along down the stream.

After an enjoyable summer vacation, we returned to school as sophomores, being a bit more grown up and fully aware that we were in the Senior High Department. Again, our class was separated and we found ourselves in the homerooms of our new teachers, Miss Burnett, Music Supervisor, and Miss Travis, Commercial teacher in place of Miss Roberts. Four of our class members, Marilyn Osborne, Sherrill Osborne, Frank Moselle and Bernard Aucter did not return with us in the fall but we were happy to gain two new class mates, JoAnn Lindsly and Shirley Bedard. After we had selected our course of study, we chose the following as class officers: President, Ermogine Spagnolli; Vice President, Glenn Fredenburg; Secretary, Jane D'Ambros; Treasurer, Marjorie Hirschev; and Advisor, Miss Travis. During our sojourn on the Sophomore island, many of our crew became interested in band, chorus, the school paper and athletics. Our social activities for the year included a dance at the Community Hall, a trip to Elmer Lyndaker's sugar bush and two movies, "Union Pacific" and "Men With Wings". During the preparations for our final examinations, one of our classmates, Laura Steria, left school. Again we looked forward to vacation time when we could lay aside our cares and relax in the summer sun.

The next fall we anchored our ship at the Junior Island with twenty-three members in our crew. We proceeded immediately to get our class organized with the selection of Elzora Ruhm, President; John Marolf, Vice President; JoAnn Lindsly, Secretary; Shirley Bedard, Treasurer; and Miss Haley, Advisor. Within a few weeks Arlin Noftsier found that he was capable of doing Senior Class work so he left our class and joined the Seniors. Our year as Juniors was intensely active. We renewed our interests in the school activities in which some of us gained positions of leadership. Our first social occasion was a Halloween Party. We had as our guests, Miss Haley, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and Mr. Meger, a new instructor whom we had welcomed to our faculty as head of the Industrial Arts Department. Since we were well along on our High School voyage, we decided to make this year as prosperous as possible. We sponsored a bake sale in the fall and sold Beaver pins and pencils during the course of the year. Our most remunerative event, however, was our Junior play, "Pig-a-ils", which was directed by our advisor, Miss Haley. It was most gratifying to have a large audience and we were happy to realize ninety-six dollars. However, we were not able to keep this money very long in our treasury because it was put toward our class rings which we ordered in May. During this month of May we arranged a movie party to the Carthage Theatre where we saw "Edison the Man". Our year as Jolly Juniors was brought to a close with a very delightful picnic along with the Freshmen and Sophomores at Lake Bonaparte. Again, our summer vacation approached and we once more launched our ship on the sea of adventure.

At the close of the summer vacation came the realization that we were rounding the last and most important bend of our voyage. We were coming nearer to the treasure which was buried deep in the month of June. To gain this treasure required hard and intensive work. At our first class meeting we again chose Miss Haley as our advisor and also Mr. Campbell. John Marolf was selected to captain our ship with the help of Ermogine Spagnolli, Jo Ann Lindsly and Elzora Ruhm. Three of our classmates, Beatrice Yousey, Helen Moser and Kenneth Schultz, left our crew but Emma Tokker joined us at the Senior year. We welcomed three new teachers to our faculty namely: Mr. Bureau, head of the Industrial Arts Department, Mr. Fuhrmann, who filled Mr. Bureau's position in January and Mr. Wiggs, director of Guidance. Our tense year as Seniors has been paved with many enjoyable activities from which we realized a great deal of money. We planned to use this money to defray the expenses of a New York trip. Some of these activities were the sale of Magazine subscriptions, the sale of candy during noon hours and at school entertainments, two bake sales, two dances and the Spring Field Day. Two of our most remunerative activities were the Senior Play on November 19th and the U-Kum-C-Fest on March 28th. The Senior Play, "Bringing Home the Bacon" was directed Miss Haley, our advisor. We shall never forget the squealing success of "Porky", the little pig, which brought the audience to its feet toward the close of Act III. The U-Kum-C-Fest, attended by a large number of people, netted us a profit of one hundred twelve dollars. The sale of our annual which was published in May, contributed greatly to our treasure. On May 29th we anxiously boarded the school bus which took us merrily on our way to see the "highlights" of New York. After our return from the great metropolis, we shall decorate the Community Hall for the Senior Ball on June 6th. Our voyage on the good ship, "High School", is drawing to a close; and we hope that we shall all receive our diplomas, the long sought treasure. Our graduation will soon be over and we shall embark on the ship of life; and as we glide away, we wish each other, "Smooth Sailing".

The first part of the report was devoted to a general survey of the situation in the country. It was found that the country was in a state of general depression, and that the people were suffering from want and distress. The report then went on to describe the various causes of this state of affairs, and to propose measures for their removal. It was found that the principal causes of the depression were the war, the loss of the markets, and the high cost of living. The report proposed that the government should take steps to reduce the cost of living, and to provide relief to the people. It also proposed that the government should take steps to increase the production of goods, and to improve the efficiency of the economy. The report concluded by stating that the government had a duty to do all that was possible to relieve the people of their distress, and to bring about a general recovery of the country.

The second part of the report was devoted to a detailed description of the various measures proposed for the relief of the people. It was found that the most important measures were the reduction of the cost of living, the provision of relief to the people, and the improvement of the economy. The report proposed that the government should take steps to reduce the cost of living by fixing the prices of the necessities of life, and by subsidizing the production of these necessities. It also proposed that the government should provide relief to the people by granting them loans, and by providing them with food and clothing. Finally, the report proposed that the government should improve the economy by increasing the production of goods, and by improving the efficiency of the economy. The report concluded by stating that these measures were essential for the relief of the people, and for the general recovery of the country.

We, the CLASS of 1941, being of questionable mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this our last will and testament -

To the BOARD of EDUCATION we leave the opportunity to give permissions to the daring Senior Class of '42.

To the FACULTY we leave all our unfinished business such as uncompleted tests and assignments.

To our ADVISORS, MISS HALEY and MR. CAMPBELL, we leave many thanks for their much appreciated help in all our class activities.

To our PARENTS and FRIENDS we bequeath anything that we have which they might want because of their splendid cooperation.

To the JUNIORS, one by one, we present these gifts:

- To Elvera's heartthrob, NELSON BAUMGARTNER, we bequeath the timid and mouse like ways of EMMA TOOKER.
- To BERNARD RITZ we positively leave ERMOGINE SPAGNOLLI's way with girls.
- To DORIS LEHMAN we leave MARION KELLEY's ability to get low marks.
- To SHIRLEY YOUSEY we bequeath BARBARA BARROWS's musical accomplishments.
- To WARREN MANNING we gladly donate BARBARA MOORE's ability to do plane geometry.
- To NELSON BAUMGARTNER we are donors of BETTY ENGLISH's gift of neatness.
- To VIRGIL LEHMAN we give JIMMY BUSH's "hurry - up -- attitude".
- To JANET FREDENBURG we leave SHIRLEY NUTTER's high soprano voice.
- To VIRGIL BUSCH we give JOHN MAROLF's excess height.
- To GRACE MATHYS we give JO ANN LINDSLY's slow and easy manner.
- To give SHIRLEY BEDARD's quick temper to BEVERLY LEHMAN.
- To LUELLA ZEHR we give ROBERT RUFF's unpreparedness for English class.
- To HOWARD PETERS we leave BARBARA DARROWS's fast and hurried walk.
- To BEBERLY O'DRIEN we leave ROBERT RUFF's lack of musical talent.
- To PAUL MARTIN we leave poor ALEX's worries and cares of the school paper, yearbook, basketball team, etc.

To ERADINE BINTZ we leave JO ANN LINDSLY's trips to Niagara Falls where she may meet her Romeo.
To DOROTHY SWEENEY we will JANE D'AMBROS's good naturedness.
To NELSON BAUMGARTNER we will JESSIE GARRETT's timidness.
To NATALIE HERZIG we will ROLLIAN MARTIN's witty remarks.
To LAWRENCE LEHMAN we leave BETTY NUFFER's interest in Grange.
To GERALDINE BINTZ we leave JOHN MAROLF's ability to "swing the gavel" in class meetings.
To CALVIN FARNEY we leave a few dates with EMMA TOOKER.
To DORIS MEYER we leave PAUL CHAFFEE's ability to sell magazines.
To BEULAH ROGGIE we leave MARJORIE HIRSCHY's smiles and dimples.
To WARREN MANNING we leave GLENN FREDENBURG's lonely hours after school making up History C tests.
To LENA LYNDAKER we leave MARION SCHAEFER's incessant giggles.
To GRACE ZEHR we leave JANE D'AMBROS's position as cheer leader.
To RITA FARNEY we leave ELZORA RUHM's ability to take care of the Senior candy.
To ELWOOD LYNDAKER we leave SHIRLEY BEDARD's "down east" accent.
To JUNIOR HOCH we leave ROLLIAN MARTIN's ability to make an audience laugh.
To HARLAN FARNEY we leave EMMA TOOKER's way of letting people know that she's around.
To JULIA D'AMBROS we in truth leave MARION SCHAEFER's ice skating ability.
To LA JUNE LYNDAKER we leave ROLLIAN MARTIN's ability to do shorthand in the "short Martin way".

To the SOPHOMORE CLASS we leave our study hall periods devoted to school activities.

To the FRESHMAN CLASS we leave our splendid cooperation with the teachers.

To ANYONE we have omitted in our will and should have included we leave our "old shoes".

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold air. It felt like a giant hand reaching out to greet me. I shivered slightly, but then I remembered that this was just the beginning of my journey. I took a deep breath and smiled at myself. I was here, in the heart of the wilderness, and I was going to make the most of it. I looked around at the vast expanse of the forest, the tall trees reaching up towards the sky. It was a sight that I would never forget. I felt a sense of awe and wonder, a feeling that I had been chosen for a special purpose. I knew that this was my chance to prove myself, to show the world that I was capable of anything. I took another deep breath and stepped forward, ready to face whatever came my way. I was going to make it, I knew that. I was going to be a legend.

2. The second thing I noticed was the sound of the water. It was a soft, gentle sound, like a lullaby. I had never heard anything like it before. It was a sound that I would never forget. I felt a sense of peace and tranquility, a feeling that I had found something special. I knew that this was my chance to relax, to let my guard down for a moment. I took another deep breath and stepped forward, ready to face whatever came my way. I was going to make it, I knew that. I was going to be a legend.

3. The third thing I noticed was the smell of the earth. It was a rich, earthy smell, like a warm blanket. I had never smelled anything like it before. It was a smell that I would never forget. I felt a sense of comfort and familiarity, a feeling that I had found something special. I knew that this was my chance to rest, to let my guard down for a moment. I took another deep breath and stepped forward, ready to face whatever came my way. I was going to make it, I knew that. I was going to be a legend.

4. The fourth thing I noticed was the taste of the air. It was a fresh, clean taste, like a new beginning. I had never tasted anything like it before. It was a taste that I would never forget. I felt a sense of hope and optimism, a feeling that I had found something special. I knew that this was my chance to start over, to let my guard down for a moment. I took another deep breath and stepped forward, ready to face whatever came my way. I was going to make it, I knew that. I was going to be a legend.

5. The fifth thing I noticed was the feel of the ground. It was a soft, yielding feel, like a warm embrace. I had never felt anything like it before. It was a feel that I would never forget. I felt a sense of safety and security, a feeling that I had found something special. I knew that this was my chance to let go, to let my guard down for a moment. I took another deep breath and stepped forward, ready to face whatever came my way. I was going to make it, I knew that. I was going to be a legend.

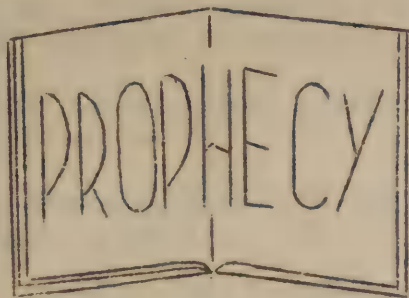

6. The sixth thing I noticed was the sight of the sun. It was a bright, warm sight, like a beacon of hope. I had never seen anything like it before. It was a sight that I would never forget. I felt a sense of joy and happiness, a feeling that I had found something special. I knew that this was my chance to shine, to let my guard down for a moment. I took another deep breath and stepped forward, ready to face whatever came my way. I was going to make it, I knew that. I was going to be a legend.

7. The seventh thing I noticed was the sound of the wind. It was a soft, gentle sound, like a lullaby. I had never heard anything like it before. It was a sound that I would never forget. I felt a sense of peace and tranquility, a feeling that I had found something special. I knew that this was my chance to relax, to let my guard down for a moment. I took another deep breath and stepped forward, ready to face whatever came my way. I was going to make it, I knew that. I was going to be a legend.

8. The eighth thing I noticed was the smell of the flowers. It was a sweet, fragrant smell, like a warm blanket. I had never smelled anything like it before. It was a smell that I would never forget. I felt a sense of comfort and familiarity, a feeling that I had found something special. I knew that this was my chance to rest, to let my guard down for a moment. I took another deep breath and stepped forward, ready to face whatever came my way. I was going to make it, I knew that. I was going to be a legend.

9. The ninth thing I noticed was the taste of the water. It was a fresh, clean taste, like a new beginning. I had never tasted anything like it before. It was a taste that I would never forget. I felt a sense of hope and optimism, a feeling that I had found something special. I knew that this was my chance to start over, to let my guard down for a moment. I took another deep breath and stepped forward, ready to face whatever came my way. I was going to make it, I knew that. I was going to be a legend.

10. The tenth thing I noticed was the feel of the sky. It was a vast, open feel, like a warm embrace. I had never felt anything like it before. It was a feel that I would never forget. I felt a sense of safety and security, a feeling that I had found something special. I knew that this was my chance to let go, to let my guard down for a moment. I took another deep breath and stepped forward, ready to face whatever came my way. I was going to make it, I knew that. I was going to be a legend.

We hereby notify all ships at sea of the latest news in the World of Fantasies -

BETTY ENGLISH is reported making a big hit with her troupe of chorus beauties, the "Croghan Smoothies".

JESSIE GARRETT has made a fortune from her patent on curless and waveless permanent machines. She is now working on a coiffure for bald women.

After nine years of faithless study, GLENN FREDENBURG has received his B. D. W. (Bachelor of Dim Wits) degree.

Under ERMOGINE SPAGNOLLI's supervision of airplane motors, several planes and their pilots were seriously damaged. Ermogine has returned to his worn, stringless violin.

MARION KELLEY is private secretary to Joe Louis, the Brown Bomber. She finds him an appreciative audience for her jokes.

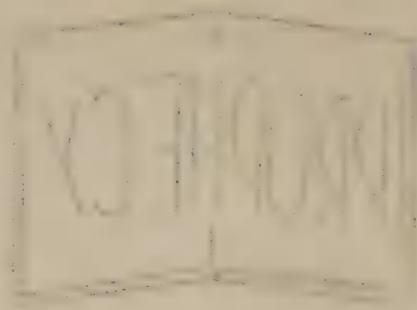

ROBERT RUFF still sits at home wondering what exams he passed in High School. In between times he works in the little corner grocery store.

ALEX RITZ devotes his leisure time to his professional job which is business. We now hear that he is president of the Elk's Club in addition to being Business Manager of the "Post Standard" and the "Journal and Republican".

MARION SCHAEFER, who has an excellent alto voice, is now director of an adult chorus, who broadcasts over WSYR every Friday night. Tune in sometime.

EMMA TOOKER has at last settled down in Croghan. She spends her days cooking and her evenings sewing for her family.

ROLLIAN MARTIN is a true born business man. He is president of the company which has just put an artificial pin boy on the market.

In the event of any change of the law, the Board of Directors of the Company shall be authorized to make such change as may be necessary or advisable for the purpose of carrying out the objects of the Company.

JIMMY BUSH's slowness has proved to be quite successful. The last report was that he has managed to type one hundred twenty words a minute.

BETTY NUFFER is on a tour of South America for the purpose of converting all the little Spanish and Portuguese to membership in our national grange.

JO ANN LINDSLY has just accepted the position of training the Marx Brothers for their new Shakesperian roles.

JOHN MAROLF has just announced that he's the proud father of a new farm stocked with the latest style in cattle.

SHIRLEY NUFFER's name is in all the news'headlines as the modern Florence Nightingale.

MARGE HIRSCHY's office boss, her husband, has just edited a book on "Business Neatness".

BARBARA MOORE has been appointed by the President and approved by the Senate as Librarian in the Congressional Library at Washington.

SHIRLEY BEDARD is now officiating as a technician in the blood testing department of Marlboro Hospital.

ELZORA RUHM is the favorite piano accompanist for Rubinooff and his violin.

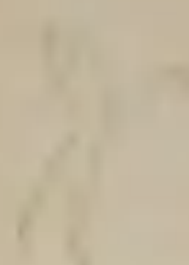

PAUL CHAFFEE has recently opened an aviation school in Beaver Falls where he takes great pride in explaining the newest development.

BARBARA BARROWS is combining music with business. She recently gave a concert showing how to produce tunes from a typewriter.

JANE D'AMBROS is now editing a book on how to produce an annual in ten easy lessons.

MANY members of the Junior Class have played important parts in school activities. Several are members of the band, chorus and the school paper staff. Warren, Jr., Nelson and Calvin are outstanding in athletics. Beverly has delighted many audiences with her marimba. Under the direction of Mrs. Carnie, eleven Juniors presented a comedy, "GRANDMA GOES HOLLYWOOD" on April 29 at the Community Hall.

The Junior Class, which is exceptionally large, has thirty-two students. They are as follows: Nelson Baumgartner, Eradine Bintz, Geraldine Bintz, Virgil Busch, Julia D'Ambros, Constance Elmer, Calvin Farney, Harlan Farney, Rita Farney, Janet Fredenburg, Natalie Herzig, Adin Hoch, Beverly Lehman, Doris Lehman, Lawrence Lehman, Virgil Lehman, Elwood Lyndaker, La June Lyndaker, Lena Lyndaker, Warren Manning, Paul Martin, Grace Mathys, Doris Meyer, Beverly O'Brien, Howard Peters, Bernard Ritz, Beulah Roggie, Dorothy Sweeney, Shirley Yousey, Barbara Zehr, Grace Zehr, Luella Zehr and Mildred Zehr. The Juniors have shown outstanding ability in many fields and they promise to be an active group in their Senior Year.

THE Sophomores have a very promising future in the extra-curricular activities. The band, chorus and school paper staff claim several of them. Elvera Miller sang in the Octette; and Harold Manning was captain of the Junior Varsity Basketball Team. Several of the Sophomores participated in athletics. Their social activities for this year included a trip to the movies, a Hallowe'en Party and a sleigh ride.

The Sophomores, who are enrolled in Mr. Fuhrmann's home room, are as follows: James Barnes, Erma Bush, Harold Chartrand, Vincent Farney, Leslie Genzel, Junior Grau, Helen Hofer, Marion Honer, Dorothy Jones, Patricia Kelly, Grace LaBombard, Gloria Larget, Harold Manning, Elvera Miller, Elmer Peters, Kenneth Shaw, Betty Spagnolli, Jack Steiner, Gladys Sweeney, Doris Virkler, Irene Widrick, Merial Yoder and Earl Yousey. It is evident that the Sophomores are beginning early to show their class spirit which is needed in maintaining the success of our school.

THE spirit and loyalty of the Freshman Class toward the school curriculum merit praise from their upperclassmen. A few members participated in the band. Several of the girls are members of the chorus. Some of the boys are very active in athletics. The class's social activities included a movie, a sleigh ride and two class parties.

THE Student Council is the student governing body of the Beaver Falls High School. It is composed of two representatives from each class with the exception of the seventh and eighth grades who have one each. The officers are elected from the three upper classes by vote of the student body. The remaining representatives are chosen by each class.

Under the guidance of Mr. Campbell, this Council plays a very important part in student activities. It supervises assembly programs, intramural sports and the musical program on the May Field Day. The many who used the skating rink are indebted to the Student Council who raised the funds for its construction. This year a handbook of the curriculum and activities of the school was published by the Council. Through this organization the students have an opportunity to express their viewpoints.

STUDENT COUNCIL

OFFICE OF THE STUDENT COUNCIL
1100 UNIVERSITY DRIVE
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60607

The Student Council is a representative body of the student body of the University of Chicago. It is composed of students from all colleges and schools of the University. The Council is responsible for the representation of the student body in all matters relating to the University. It is the duty of the Council to act in the best interests of the student body and to cooperate with the faculty and the administration in the management of the University.

The Council is organized into several committees and subcommittees. These include the Committee on Academic Affairs, the Committee on Financial Affairs, the Committee on Student Life, and the Committee on Student Government. Each committee is responsible for the study and recommendation of matters relating to its respective field. The Council also has the power to elect and remove its members and to adopt and amend its constitution and bylaws. The Council is the highest representative body of the student body and is the only body of students with the power to act in the name of the student body in all matters relating to the University.

SINCE the BEAVER'S TALE was organized in the spring of 1933, it has grown in size as well as in influence among the students, alumni and friends. It serves as a medium for expressing student opinion as well as reviewing the news of the preceding weeks. Through the influence of Miss Travis and Mrs. Carnie, excellent practical training on both its editorial and business staffs is afforded; and many who are interested take advantage of this opportunity.

THE Beaver Falls High School Band under the supervision of Miss Burnett has had a very successful year. It participated in the Spring Concert, the Lewis County May Festival, the Northern New York Music Festival and has played at several school and community functions. During the summer months, the band accompanied the firemen in the customary competitive parades for which it has been awarded several prizes.
